Your Support Makes a Difference!

The Methodist Medical Center Foundation's inaugural HealthTalk luncheon benefits the healthcare programs and services of Methodist Medical Center. The Foundation was established in 1990 for charitable giving at Methodist Medical Center of Oak Ridge, and funds advance the highest quality of healthcare services at the hospital. The Foundation's mission is to assist Methodist Medical Center with extending the gift of life to all those in need, regardless of their ability to pay.

DoubleTree by Hilton Oak Ridge benefiting the patients and families served by

Featured speaker Martin D. "Marty" Brown

As president, CEO, and owner of PYA, Marty is a steward of the nation's Top 100 accounting firms - the only one headquartered in Knoxville. Marty joined PYA in 1991, helping the firm expand to seven cities and gain national recognition, including a ranking by Modern Healthcare as a Top 20 healthcare consulting firm. Marty serves as a lead advisor for several of the nation's most well-known academic medical centers; as the lead client service executive for a number of multi-hospital systems across the country; and as an advisor to healthcare systems and large physician groups on strategy, transactions, compliance, compensation design, succession planning, and executive leadership.
